PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene: you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from gasoline. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York, which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

J. H. HORNER, } Associate Principals.
R. H. GRAVES, }

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.

There is no Radical lodgement which needs more a thorough cleansing out than this institution. A large—very large—amount of money is annually expended on it. The predecessor of the present incumbent in the Stewardship of the institution was dismissed by the present Radical Board because he would not be a party to corrupt speculation in the expenditure of the funds appropriated for the maintenance of the unfortunate inmates of the Asylum.

We are glad to know that there is no disposition to displace Dr. Fuller; to remove him would be like removing the walls of the building. He has become an indispensable, a permanent fixture of the place. He is laborious, punctual, methodical, skilful and kind to the patients; never out of humor nor out of place; knowing well what to do and always prompt in doing it.

We hear no special complaint of the Superintendent, Dr. Grissom, except of a political character. His friends say he became a Republican to obtain the position, and that he is not, at heart, a Republican. In fact, he voted for Judge Gilliam in August, which few Republicans would do, and refused to let a negro eat at his table, which most Republicans profess that they are ready to do. On the other hand, he can commend himself to the Radicals by the fact that he went strong for Gov. Holden and has son Jo.

By the way, we have never settled up that question about the negro, Howe, being invited to dine with the Doctor.—When we alluded to the matter about the time of its occurrence, our information was only second hand, from General Dockery. What we stated was stated as coming from him. Dr. Grissom called us "liar" and other hard names about it, but from a press of more important matter at the time, we let his very courteous allusion to us pass, before we had proven, as we can do, by General Dockery, the truth of what we said. We carry neither envy nor malice, whisky nor tobacco about us, at any time, and since brother Earle's "refreshing season" among us, we can bear with christian fortitude and philosophy all that Radicals and Jacobins, Cape Cod Ashley or the devil can say of us; although we may not have been so largely benefitted as some others seem to be, morally and religiously.

We shall not forget, nor fail to give Dr. Grissom full credit for being the first Radical we heard of who condemned the financial movements of the Governor and his "Railroad Ring." He chanced to be in New York with the Governor when he had Dr. Sinas, Col. Wm. Moore, Gen. Littlefield, George W. Swepson, and other members of the "Ring" around him at the St. Nicholas Hotel, and office of Henry Clews & Co., in the Fall of 1869. The Doctor, in that trip, learned something of how the people of the State were being robbed of their railroad bonds, and he came home and, to a few friends, denounced the proceedings, but he did not break with his friend, the Governor, nor has he to this day.

If the Doctor, at that time, had said, in a card to the public, what he said to some half dozen friends in private, it would have saved, perhaps, millions of dollars to the State, and covered a multitude of Radical sins.

There are said to be but twenty-one Radical Doctors in the State, which speaks well for the profession. Only twenty-one out of several hundreds joined with Holden, Laflin, Littlefield, Ashley & Co., in wronging and oppressing the people of their native State. We did hear that Dr. Menninger denounced the Holden-Kirk war; if Dr. Grissom ever denounced it, it failed to reach our ears. We did hear of Dr. Menninger voting against "my son Jo" in the last election, but if Dr. Grissom did so, we didn't hear of it.

So far as the Superintendency of the Insane Asylum is concerned, we hear of several aspirants for it; but if any of them turned Democrat or Conservative to get it, we hope he will be disappointed.

NORTH CAROLINA AND INDIANA.

For the information of U. S. Senator Morton, of Indiana, who introduced a resolution into the Senate on Friday last asking for information of violations of law in North Carolina, we will state: Some time last year, a rape was perpetrated upon one of the most respectable white ladies of this county, aged 65 years, by a negro by the name of Stinson. He was arrested for the act, lodged in jail, tried, convicted and hung according to law. His Honor, Judge Watts, remarked in his charge to the jury, that it spoke well for the condition of our society, when the people did not take the law into their own hands, and punish such a heinous crime as that perpetrated by the prisoner at the bar. Stinson was a black man and a Republican—the family connections of the outraged lady are Conservatives.

In Indiana, about the same time, a white man committed a rape upon a white woman, and a crowd of men took him out and hung him until he was dead, without law or jury.

Cannot the Senator have Congress to pluck the beam from the eye of his own State, before it attempts to get the motes from the eyes of other States?

Billy Smith, having stopped blowing his own horn in the Senate, is now trying to blow dust into the eyes of the people of Alamance with a Shophorn.

You can't fool 'em, Billy.

"We cannot believe that every Democratic Senator is at the command of the King of the Ku Klux if the Sentinel does intimate that they are. We shall presume that justice will be done the Governor until we have reason to believe otherwise."—Standard of 21st.

The SENTINEL has not intimated that any Senator was subject to its command, or to the command of any one, and we believe that "justice will be done the Governor." We, in the name of the good people of North Carolina, ask for nothing else. Gov. Holden has been guilty of every crime and misdemeanor charged in the articles of impeachment. No respectable authority will deny this. We have been told that Mr. Phillips said, in his speech opposing the impeachment, "we admit, for the sake of the argument, that Gov. Holden did not adhere to the strict letter of the law," and proceeded to argue his defense upon the grounds of expediency and the emergency of the occasion, requiring, as he inferred, an extraordinary exercise of power. This we understand to have been the substance of Mr. Phillips' remarks, though not the language. But Gov. Holden did transcend the very plainly expressed letter of the law and the constitution. He arrested quiet and peaceable citizens of the State without warrant, confined them without investigation, allowed them no opportunity of either knowing their accusers or of what they were accused, or of defending themselves—all of which is plainly guaranteed to every citizen of the State by the expressed letter of the constitution, which constitution Gov. Holden swore he would support and defend. He defied and refused the writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Pearson, suspended civil law in two counties of the State in positive violation of the constitution. Judge Pearson decided that the writ of habeas corpus was not, and could not be, suspended; that the Governor had the power to make arrests of persons suspected of having violated the laws, but could not detain them, and must immediately turn such parties over to the civil authorities for trial. Gov. Holden established martial law in Alamance and Caswell, which was practically to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and make the civil subordinate to the military power. He made arrests of parties, but instead of turning them over to the civil authorities for investigation and trial, he refused to do so, and, as Judge Pearson said, he, the Governor, having the military force to sustain him, he, the Judge, could not execute the law and the constitution. Does any one deny this?

We want the Governor to have justice. We only ask that the Senate look at the law and the Constitution and their requirements of the Governor as chief executive officer of the State, and compare his conduct with said requirements. If he has violated law, outraged liberty and justice, let him be impeached; if he has executed the law properly and faithfully, if he has done his duty according to the Constitution and laws, then acquit him. Let the Governor have justice—nothing more, nothing less—but let the Senate consider well the rights of the citizens of the State, the integrity of the fundamental law,—the only bulwark of defence against despotism and oppression. Let them say whether armed hosts, it matters not by whom commanded, or ordered into existence, shall march with impunity into the very heart of the citadel of liberty, tear down the temple of justice, and trample under foot the charter of freedom and civil rights.

ARSON OF THE LEAGUERS.

We call attention of our readers to the following letter from Mr. D. B. Holland, a plain, intelligent farmer of Wake county, in regard to the recent burnings in his neighborhood, in the edge of Wake and Chatham counties. We shall refer to this matter more fully in a few days.

NEW HILL, Wake Co., Dec. 20, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—There is great excitement in this portion of Wake. Our Township Constable, W. H Norris, has the names of, and warrants for the arrest of more than forty members of the Union League. Over twenty have been arrested. Many have turned State's evidence, and disclose a most diabolical plot on the part of the secret political society to burn, indiscriminately, the property within their reach. My neighbors, young and old, are all out, gun in hand, to aid the Constable, and support the civil authorities.

Joe. Dennis, Hardy Stewart, Norman Raines, Alfred Jones, and others, all negroes, have turned States evidence. The source of all our troubles and burnings can now be traced by the evidence of these deluded black men to the city of Raleigh.

Wilson Dewer says that in the Fall of 1869 a meeting was called, by order of Gov. Holden, at the house of James Howell, colored. Hardy Stewart, Joe Dennis and Alfred Jones all testify that at this meeting a plan for barn-burning was resolved upon. It was resolved at this meeting that the barn of R. C. Branch should be burned, and Benton Clemons and others were detailed to do the deed. Mr. Branch's barn, you remember, was fired last Fall; and men in ambush fired at him while he was extinguishing the flames. At this same meeting the gin house of Rev. J. W. Collins was ordered to be burned, but no man was detailed to carry out the order. After this meeting notices were stuck up on the trees threatening to burn every house and barn in the neighborhood.

In June the house of Mr. James G. Burt was burned by order of this league. Since then four barns have been burned, one gin, four horses and two mules. The evidence disclosed shows that nearly every mill, barn and cotton-gin in the neighborhood was condemned to be burned, and the night and the men designated upon which and by whom it was to be done.

Last week two barns were burned in Moore county. The evidence of the parties arrested here shows that a good understanding exists between the Moore county leagues and those of Wake and Chatham. Alvin Hackney, Norman Raines, Wilson Dewer, and Sam Cox are proven to be captains commissioned to burn.

The investigation is now going on before Justices Holleman and Jones in Wake, and Justices Moffit and Brown in Chatham. The evidence is all taken down in writing, and I will see that it is sent to you. I hope this is the last of the Leagues, and henceforth we shall have peace.

None but those who have witnessed it can appreciate the fear and distress which has prevailed here for nearly twelve months. I have seen women almost crazed with fear and distress. Can the Legislature do nothing for us by passing a law to break up all secret political societies, whether Ku Klux or Leagues?

I send you these facts for publication. You may rely upon them as true.

Respectfully yours,
D. B. HOLLAND.

FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received from the House transmitting a bill relating to municipal elections, with amendments, asking the concurrence of the Senate in the same, which was concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Merrimon, the rules were suspended for the purpose of taking up, and putting through its several readings, bill No. 58, (Senate bill) to investigate alleged frauds in the disposition of bonds of the State, issued to Railroad Companies, and for other purposes.

Mr. Lehman moved an amendment to the bill, extending the scope of the Commission, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Gilmer, the blanks in the bill, providing for the appointment of the Commission, were filled with the following names, to wit: Messrs. David Coleman, Robert Johnson, and Peter Adams.

On motion of Mr. Worth, the name of M. S. Robins, of Randolph, was added to the Commission.

On motion of Mr. Graham, the bill was amended so as to prescribe what roads should be investigated, to wit: Eastern and Western Divisions of the Western North Carolina Railroad, Western Railroad, and the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the bill was amended so as to authorize said Commission to report to this body at the next session, or during the present session, if in their discretion it may seem proper.

The bill passed its second reading, and was read a third time, when

Mr. Gilmer moved to amend further by including two other roads, to wit: Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Road, and the Chatham Road, which was adopted.

Mr. Jones moved to strike out the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Road, which was lost.

Mr. Flemming moved to lay the bill on the table.

Mr. Merrimon called the previous question, which was sustained, and the bill passed its third reading by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Adams, Albright, Bartlett, Bellamy, Brogden, Cook, Connell, Crowell, Currie, Gilmer, Graham, Hawkins, Hyman, (colored,) Jones, King, Ledbetter, Mauney, McClammy, Merrimon, Moore, Morehead, Murphy, Norment, Price, (colored,) Robbins, of Davidson, Robbins, of Bowan, Skinner, Troy, Waddell, Whitesides, and Worth—31.

NAYS.—Mr. Flemming—1.

On motion of Mr. Merrimon, the bill was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House at once.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the Hebrew Benevolent Society, of Charlotte, was taken up and passed its several readings, and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House at once.

Resolution in favor of M. A. Bledsoe.

Mr. Brogden moved to lay the resolution on the table.

This motion was discussed at length. Finally, on motion of Mr. Gilmer, its further consideration was postponed for the present.

Mr. Robbins, of Davidson, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reported a properly enrolled, the bill concerning municipal elections, which was ratified.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint a Senator in his own stead on the Committee to prepare rules of procedure in the trial of impeachment, and Mr. Gilmer was designated.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 21, 1870.

House called to order at half past seven. Mr. Robinson in the chair.

Convention bill was taken up. An amendment offered by the gentleman from Clay, (Mr. ——,) was taken up and lost.

Section 10 was adopted.

Section 11 was read, and Mr. Houston offered an amendment to the effect that so much of the constitution as was in existence on the 20th May, 1867, be adopted, with the restrictions and limitations proposed in the bill, together with so much of the constitution as had been found acceptable to the people.

Mr. Houston thought gentlemen exhibited too much anxiety to hurry the bill through, while there was reason for deliberate action. Because the people wishes to change it, was no reason that there should be haste. Because a man wants a wife, hope was no reason why he should court the first woman he met. He objected to the bill because it makes unjust discrimination against the white man in favor of the colored man, and gives no guarantee for the security of the right of the former. He was in favor of limitation. While this bill was for a convention nearly as unlimited as that of 1868, and by referring back to the people, we might get nearly the same constitution. The constitution of 1835 specified two sets of restrictions, what the convention might do, and what it might not do. The men of those days were jealous of their rights and liberties, and we should be the same. He proposed to blend all that has endeared itself in the old and new constitutions into one harmonious whole, to confine the action of the convention within prescribed limits, and the conservatives would be bound by these limitations. The people would have a guarantee that the township system would be abolished, the old county court system restored, the Supreme and Superior courts restored to their former number of Judges.

Fletcher, col., said he had been inclined to listen with favor to the idea of calling a convention, but listened with patience and freedom from prejudice, but was now satisfied that the colored people had everything to fear and nothing to gain by it, and would go against it with all his influence.

Tucker, col., had also been rather favorable to a convention, but he had learned to distrust the Conservative party. They showed too much zeal in the matter, with too little knowledge; and all their object seemed to aim at the disfranchisement of the colored man. If they had been more kind, he could trust them now, but he would follow the example set him. With reference to the convention, it was the last button. He would fight it out on that line. They had sown the wind, they would reap the whirlwind.

Smith, col., of Halifax, made a long talk against the bill generally, the speaker extending indulgence to him, though departing widely from the question before the House. He was frequently interrupted by his colored friends, who were impatient at the consumption of time, but he manfully persisted, and finished a speech as satisfactory to the House as was to himself.

The amendment of Mr. Houston was then put and lost.

Section 12 was adopted without amendment or discussion, as were the remaining sections 13, 14, 15 and 16.

The bill as a whole was then put on its 2d reading.

Mr. Phillips remarked that he had taken no part in the discussion of this bill. His friends had put it in a shape to suit themselves, without reference to his taste in the matter, and he only wanted to save time on the occasion, as he had no idea that the bill would not pass. He had two objections to the bill, the form and its general scope. He would say only a few words on the subject of a restricted convention. The question of the majority to call a convention had been decided two or three times, and no number less than two thirds of the Legislature was competent to do it. Originally two and seven-elevenths had so agreed. At the session of 1864, Judge Person moved an amendment, by which two thirds was made necessary, instead of a majority as prescribed in the bill, and the amendment was adopted. The question was argued with great ability in the Senate, but voted down in that body by a majority of more than two to one, and in the House did not get even a party vote. The same question was argued again when the free suffrage amendment was discussed. Mr. Graham proposed a convention, with an elaborate argument, and was met by Foster, Winslow, and others, with the argument that no power less than two thirds was competent to call a convention.

When decisions affect all, shall we not revere decisions? What constitutes worth? Those are no longer original questions; they have been decided; we have the precedents, the opinions of the most experienced men in North Carolina. Now the most delicate subjects are before you; you are exciting the apprehension of the most ignorant and unprincipled in regard to the loss of land and property by confiscations of change, and destruction of security they have felt. The mode of calling a convention was unconstitutional, and he objected to it on that ground; he would let it go to the people in that way and discuss it hereafter.

He would not differ with lawyers on certain points. Legislatures can't restrain but people can. With regard to the obligations of the oath to be taken, he would ask of what value it was. Would it invalidate the instrument if the convention exceeded its powers. If the constitution to be made is to be submitted to the people subject to their vote, what is the use of an oath. If instructions are disregarded, and yet the people accepted the acts of the convention, would it not be constitutional?

The convention of '35 went beyond its powers. He would ask what security is there that this convention would not do the same; he would not say they would commit perjury.

Mr. Johnston asked if gentlemen objected and taking the oath would not be guilty of perjury? Mr. Phillips answered certainly, but what value in restrictions are secured by oath; oaths are not worth much in time of trouble. Juries in old times on questions where their prejudices were enlisted could not be depended on. There were no convictions for duels.

Mr. Sparrow—Do you say, you can't trust gentlemen under such circumstances?

Mr. Phillips—Yes, I can't trust any number of gentlemen under this. There must be limitations upon power.

Mr. Phillips cited various instances when the convention of '35 exceeded its limitations—did not charge them with corruption, but did say that they were led by this and failed to adhere to their obligations; if they did so, why not others; if they could not be trusted who can we get from private life to do better?

The manner in which the convention is called is a poor success of its success and other parts of plan. He had listened to the amendment of the gentleman from Mecklenburg, regarding the security of the homestead. That was a mere spider's web; the winds of March will bring every homestead rattling down. He did not mean anything offensive, but when your plans are carried out, officers displaced, good times will come. The homestead hangs on the opinion of four of the Judges of the Supreme Court, that the decision of the Supreme Court is retrospective, and it depends upon them. If the constitution is adopted, and they remand, then comes the beginning of the end of every homestead.

The bill was then put on its second reading and passed, yeas 40, nays 32.

Mr. Hargrove called attention to the majority and claimed that the Speaker must decide if the bill did not have a two-third majority that it did not pass. The Speaker ruled that the bill had passed by a republic majority.

Mr. Hargrove appealed from the decision of the chair, not on any rule of the House, but on constitutional grounds. The chair did not recognize the right of the gentleman to appeal.

Mr. French raised a point of order, that the second reading of a bill is part of its legislative life, and it can go forward without it, and its legality must be as perfect thereon in its final stage, and the chair undertakes to decide constitutional questions, upon which the right to appeal stands. The chair ruled the gentleman out of order.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

MORNING SESSION.

THURSDAY, Dec. 22, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Grayson, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Settle was allowed to record his vote in the negative upon the passage of the convention bill on its second reading.

Messrs. Henderson, Strudwick and Welch, recorded their votes in the affirmative on the same bill.

Mr. French presented a memorial from the commissioners of New Hanover, asking to be allowed to levy a special tax; referred.

Mr. Fisher presented a memorial from the commissioners of Bladen for the same purpose; referred.

The chairmen of various standing committees submitted reports from their respective committees.

By Mr. Fisher: A bill in favor of the Sheriff of Bladen county.

By Mr. French: A bill to authorize the commissioners of New Hanover county to levy a special tax; referred.

By Mr. Powell: A bill to define the duties of Judges of Superior Court in certain cases; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Fisher: A bill to authorize the commissioners of Bladen county to levy a special tax; referred.

By Mr. Worth: A resolution to allow that clerk of the House to employ additional clerical force; placed on calendar.

On motion of Mr. Johnston of Buncombe, the rules were suspended and the convention bill was taken up.

The bill as amended was read.

Mr. Hargrove moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until the sixteenth of January. He said he did not wish to be understood as being unfriendly to the bill. The question of convention had not been discussed in the section during the last canvass, and as members are going home for the Christmas holidays they could have a fine opportunity to consult their constituents. The postponement asked for would not at all interfere with an early convention if it was decided to pass the bill. It became the importance of the question and the dignity of the House that ample time should be taken to maturely consider the matter, &c.

Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, agreed that the question was one of the utmost importance, and one that should be well considered. But had it not been weighed and considered for the past five weeks? If the question was one of calling a convention by the Legislature direct, he would feel it his duty to oppose it, but as this bill left the whole matter to the decision of the people, he advocated its immediate passage. He did not entirely approve all the provisions of the bill, yet as it was the sense of said special means of giving to his people that relief for which they were unanimously crying out, he would vote for it. He did not know until recently how anxious and desirous the people of the west were for the passage of some such bill. He was receiving numerous letters every day urging him to press the matter upon the Legislature. In regard to the argument of Mr. Phillips, that any convention bill passed by the General Assembly required, by the constitution, a two thirds majority, he proved, from the debates of the convention of 1835, that that provision was inserted in the constitution, not to restrict the power and rights of the people, but the power of their SERVANTS, the Representatives. He was surprised that Republicans should make an issue which took from the people all voice in such questions. What objection could any gentleman have to submitting this matter to the popular vote? He would readily agree that a majority of the Legislature could not call a convention outright without consulting the people, but it was clear that a majority could call one, subject to the will of the people of the State.

This measure was based upon the chief corner stone of Republicanism, it appealed to the people, the sovereigns, to say whether they wished the fundamental law of the land amended in any particular. Republicans on this floor admit that the constitution needs some amendment, and yet when a proposition is made to leave the matter in the hands of the people, they endeavor to advance a constitutional quibble which gives a deadly thrust at the privileges and prerogatives of the qualified voters of the State, by taking away from them in substance the vote in the matter.

In regard to the necessity of calling a convention, he would call attention to the Governor's message, in which it is said that $2,500,000 of taxes would have to be levied on the tax payers of the State to meet the interest on the debt and to carry on the government. Could our impoverished people stand it? Could our State with about $40,000,000 of taxable property bear up under such a terrible pressure? Now suppose legislative enactments were resorted to to remedy the evil, it would take at least two and a half years to accomplish anything, and in the meantime the tax payers of the State will have had a tax of over $5,000,000, at the Governor's estimate—heaped upon them. What would a convention to remedy this crying evil cost? Not $50,000, and if it should cost $100,000, it would be money most judiciously spent in relieving the State and the people of tremendous burdens.

In regard to Mr. Phillips' remarks upon the proposed restrictions, in which he (Mr. Phillips) said that the people of North Carolina were not to be bound by an oath, he was afraid to trust them, he (Mr. Johnston) was utterly amazed that a native North Carolinian and representative of a portion of her people should utter such language. He (Mr. J.) had heard slander and abuse heaped upon the State by foreigners who had no interest here or character at home, but he was astounded that such an expression should fall from the lips of one who had been reared here and had been the recipient of honors and favors at the hands of the people. Well might poor old North Carolina "turn in her grave" when her own children stabbed her fair fame.

He knew the object of the gentleman (Mr. Phillips) in insinuating that the convention of 1835 disregarded their oaths in regard to the disfranchisement of mulattoes, it was to excite a prejudice in the minds of the colored people against a convention, when the gentleman knew very well that if a convention was called and took steps to interfere with their rights, their action would be rendered nugatory by the laws and constitution of the United States.—He (Mr. J.) expected to see such trickery resorted to on the stump, but he did not expect to see in this House such expedients resorted to when calm argument and sound logic would not sustain the opponents of this measure.

The gentleman from Wake (Mr. Phillips) in his remarks last night, had said that the present constitution would not stand a moment in the United States supreme courts on account of its homestead provision. If that was so, then the Republican party had perpetrated a fine outrage upon the people when they went before them promising them a homestead. We propose to give them the homestead, and guard it in every possible way.

Mr. Johnston continued for some time against the motion to postpone and in favor of the passage of the bill. He alluded to the deplorable condition into which our Judiciary had fallen, the expense into which this anomalous system had run the people, and concluded by an appeal in behalf of the heavily taxed people of the State, that this might be closed in order to bring speedy relief.

Mr. Hargrove argued in behalf of the motion to postpone, and against the bill in general. He was of the opinion that the present evils had better be borne than "fly to those we know not of." He was opposed to any convention, whether restricted or not.

Mr. Sparrow—If the bill is so amended as to make a two thirds majority necessary, will you support it?

Mr. Hargrove—I have answered the question. I said I was opposed to any convention.

Mr. Sparrow—Will you vote now to levy a tax to pay the interest on the public debt. If not, how do you avoid it under your oath to support the constitution.

Mr. Hargrove replied, when the question came up, he was and nays would be called and his vote would answer the question.

Mr. Hargrove continued his remarks in advocacy of the motion to postpone.

Mr. Tomlinson urged the motion to postpone, not because he was opposed to the bill, but because he wished time to consult his people, &c.

Mr. Sparrow next took the floor in opposition to the motion to postpone and in favor of the immediate passage of the bill. He had intended to express his views fully to day upon this great question, but seeing it was his anxiety to have a vote on the motion to postpone he would not detain the House long by any remarks of his. He had supposed that this measure would excite but little debate as Republicans and all had declared that the constitution was, in some particulars, unsuited to the condition of our people, and that this burdened and distressed people demanded immediate relief, but from the developments in this debate he had not was patent that the opponents were opposed to any convention whether restricted in its operations or not. He (Mr. S.) was in favor of a convention because the people were crying from one end of the State to the other, for speedy relief, and he intended to endeavor to give it to them, and the calling of a convention was the only way to do it.

Mr. S. called attention to the enormous tax which the Governor had declared was necessary to be raised to pay the interest on the public debt and to carry on the State government, and did not members of the Legislature on taking their seats, swear to support a constitution which requires them to levy promptly and regularly an adequate tax for such purposes, yet some gentlemen would await the slow process of amendments by legislative enactment (which would take three years) before any relief to any shape could reach them, &c.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the Reporter is obliged to condense Mr. Sparrow's remarks, in order not to delay the paper for the Western mail. The speech in full will appear hereafter.

Mr. Phillips next argued in opposition to the bill. The gentleman from Buncombe (Mr. Johnston) had misrepresented him in regard to what he said about the danger of relying on the oaths of men. He simply spoke of men as a class, not of North Carolinians; he spoke of the weakness of human nature. He would trust the oaths of North Carolinians as soon as that of any other people, &c.

Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, said that he had not intended to misrepresent the gentleman from Wake, (Mr. Phillips), but he (Mr. Phillips) in his allusion to the transgressions of oaths, had illustrated it by North Carolinians in every instance.

The question recurred on the motion of Mr. Hargrove to postpone the bill to the 16th of January. The yeas and nays were called, and the motion prevailed by a vote of yeas 45, nays 43.

Mr. Gregory moved to reconsider, he having voted with the majority for that purpose.

Pending the motion to reconsider the House adjourned.

NOTE.—In recording his vote in the negative on the passage of the convention bill on its 3d reading, Mr. Settle said there were many gentlemen who were pledged against a convention, but who, knowing the burdens under which our people labor, under the present condition of affairs, were favorably disposed towards some such bill, and would, perhaps, after consultation with their people, vote for it. He was of that number, but as long as the bill had been forced to a vote he was compelled to record his vote in the negative. He hoped the third reading would be postponed until after the recess.

ORGANIZE.

The following from the Asheville Citizen is well said. We heartily endorse it, and commend the suggestion to our friends throughout the State:

"The question of Convention, will doubtless be submitted to the people within a few weeks, and it is of the greatest importance that the friends of Constitutional Reform meet in every county and organize, for the contest. Here, in the West, it is believed there will be but little opposition to the contemplated changes in the Constitution, but we should remember, that our friends in the Eastern portion of the State have to contend against heavy odds, and that our hopes for success must come from the West. Our section acted nobly in the late campaign, did its work well, and there need be no fears in the coming one, if we have organization and concert of action. Then organize at once and be ready!

☞ THOS. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

UNDER THE MARKET HOUSE our friend W. V. Clifton, has opened an elegant saloon, where the public can always find the substantials of life, and, when necessary, a good appetizer.—Clifton knows how to keep a Saloon, is acquainted with all its minutiæ, and offers to homeless and friendless young men, all the "comforts of a home." His "chief" room is always open, but the first of his rules of regulation is, that no married men is expected to attend.

STERLING SILVER WARE.—Mr. Ed. Faunach, just above the State National Bank, has received at his jewelry store, one of the finest and handsomest stock of sterling silver ware it has been our good fortune to look at. He has had an eye to getting in such goods as would suit the season approaching, for presents to our friends and the "dear ones at home," and has displayed much taste in the matter. His entire stock is a large and well selected one. Call on him and examine.

THE NEW DROP CURTAIN, at Tucker Hall, is truly admirable. It was executed by Messrs. Donehower and Munroe, Scenic Painters, who excel in this art. The brilliant colors in which it is done, adds largely to the attractiveness of the stage. They promised to do a good job, and they have filled the bill beyond expectations.

"MR. BROGDEN afflicted "his friends" and the Senate again Tuesday, in a speech of several hours duration, upon the Goldsboro' Municipal bill, in which he took occasion to say, "truth crushed to earth will rise again." If error crushed to earth will not rise again, Mr. Brogden will keep his seat hereafter.

MESSAGE TO JUDGE PEARSON.—The Senate sent Senator A. C. Cowles to Richmond Hill, Yadkin county, the home of Judge Pearson, with a message from that body notifying his Honor of the impeachment of the Governor, and requesting his immediate attendance to organize the court. It is thought that the Judge will be here to-day and organize the court, after which the Legislature will adjourn for the holydays. The trial will doubtless commence about the middle of January.

DR. LOVE.—This Senator seems to have incurred the special hatred of Pilgrim Ashley and the Standard. No doubt the Senator's virtues and not his vices afflict and disturb the Standard men. The Doctor made a report to the last Legislature on the penitentiary swindle. He showed that Kilbie Lassiter and the Committee who located the penitentiary on Deep River, stated in their report, as facts, things that were untrue. The Doctor has further incurred the ire of the Pilgrim by introducing in the Senate a bill reducing the salary of the Pilgrim from $2400 to $50 per annum. This is enough, Martlin and Ashley, of the "Praise-God Carpet-bag" order, cannot stand such things on the part of Dr. Love, and would hunt him down and silence him forever, if they could find men of sufficient credulity to believe the lies and scandal they invent and publish concerning him. We call on brother "collards," when he next prays for the Governor, to include "Praise-God-Carpet-baggers," Ashley and Martlin; not that we have any great faith in his prayers, or their susceptibility of improvement, but, he can try it on them, any how; it can't make them any worse.

Blair, is ever on the alert to please and entertain his guests with his genial good humor and pleasant smile.—His tables are loaded with the bounties of the land, and if a person has not an appetite, we will stake our veracity, that he will have a "coming one." THE GEORGIA ELECTIONS.—We give below what we have received of the elections in Georgia, which came after the closing of our yesterday's issue.

A dispatch from Augusta of the 21st, says: "The election is progressing without disturbance. The Democrats are ahead in Richmond and Columbia counties, and are behind in Burke and Jefferson, which will go Republican. In Decatur county the Republicans had a small majority yesterday. In Columbus the Democrats were ahead in the two days polling.

Alabama negroes are helping the Republicans at Milledgeville. Three election managers were arrested and imprisoned at Sparta, for receiving illegal votes. In Rome the Democrats are three to one ahead.

Many negroes are voting the Democratic ticket.

ATLANTA, Dec. 21.—The election progressing quietly. A white man was arrested for inciting the negroes to vote illegally, and ten colored men were arrested for illegal voting. One hundred and fifty colored illegal voters escaped to-night on the State Road. A deputy U. S. Marshal refused to accompany a party to arrest them; but the white leaders were arrested.

The returns come in slowly, and nothing definite can be ascertained until the voting closes. The impression gains that the Democrats will certainly elect four if not five members of Congress, and a large majority of the Legislature.

MORE BARNBURNERS ARRIVED.—Yesterday afternoon, officer Norris, with a posse, arrived in the city with twelve of the barnburners from the Buckhorn settlement. We learn that seven others of the same gang were taken to the jail in Chatham. Several of the nineteen now in Wake jail were arrested on their own confession, and these implicate the rest. The testimony against all or nearly all of them, is clear and of the most positive character.—Others of the gang are yet at large, but we have reason to believe they will be caught.

BRADLEY & CHRISTOPHERS, a little north of the Yarborough House, have a very full and fine selection of Christmas good for old or young, toys and knick knacks in abundance and variety. They make a specialty of cakes, having them of all kinds, varieties and sizes, ornamented and plain, suited to set off any sort of table desired for a Christmas or New Years party. They ask all in want of such seasonable goods to give them a call.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—We learn that Master Weston Gales, son of our esteemed fellow citizen, Seaton Gales, Esq., while out hunting, on Wednesday, in company with C. B. Root, Esq., had the little finger and a part of the outside of one of his hands badly shattered by the accidental discharge of his gun, while crossing a fence. The wound is a very painful one, but it is hoped the hand and finger will be saved, though perhaps somewhat disfigured.

THE TEMPERANCE demonstration at Goldsboro' last night was a grand success. Our young fellow citizen, Theo. N. Ramsey, Esq., President of the State Council, with others, addressed the meeting. Our Goldsboro' friends have always manifested much zeal in the temperance cause, and they have done no better now than we expected of them. We know that Mr. R. gave them such an address as the occasion and the subject required; and none will appreciate it more than the members and friends of Goldsboro' Council, No. 43.

SNOW, the first of the season, visited us last night.

R. DORSEY OGDEN, Lessee and Manager of the Richmond, Va., Theatre, and Theatres South, deserves the thanks of our citizens for his effort to give them a season of first rate entertainment. Mr. Ogden is an artist of high reputation, and is generally recognized as one of the best stage managers in the South. His first appearance here with the Sappho Opera Troupe, won for him many friends, who not only appreciate his own reading, but his evident desire and determination to present only such performances and performers as the ladies and gentlemen of Raleigh could attend and enjoy. The Sappho Troupe were very good actors, and very observant of those proprieties on the stage, the want of which renders all performances offensive. Sappho is a little girl of only ten years of age, frail of status, and of wonderful artistic talent. Is perfectly self-possessed at all times, and has a sweet, clear, distinct and musical voice. Her reading is really charming. In this, and her conception of the character she represents, she stands pre-eminent for one of her age. Miss Lelia Ellis, Sappho's elder sister, seems equally perfect at home in everything she undertakes. She sings and acts with an easy, jaunty grace, and perfectly self-possessed air, which, together with her really beautiful face and figure, lend an unusual charm to her performances.

And Miss Maggie Harold is no less admirable. Beautiful and fascinating, she captivates all on her first appearance. The little lisp perceptible in her singing and talking only added to the great interest the audience took in her. Messrs. Ellis, London, and the other gentleman conduced largely to the enjoyment of our citizens.

Mr. Ogden will occupy Tucker Hall about the 16th of January for several nights, at which time we hope he may receive such encouragement as will induce him to remember Raleigh often in his professional tours South.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1871, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the true Philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the civilized world, are fully set forth in 96 pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., on receipt of 3 two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficent Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper containing these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with a crank, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to sit with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 3859, $5,000; No. 6000, $2,500; No. 5776, $1,500; No. 7942, $2,000; No. 1407, $1,000; No. 4442, $1,000; No. 1436, $1000. LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Definite Dividends" are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy. Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $251 50.	Ordinary Life Policy. Mutual Plan Cash Co. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $251 50.	Ordinary Life Policy. "Stock" Company. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $216.00.
Tontine Dividend paid in cash at end of 10 yrs $2,593 25. Prem's paid in 10 years 2,915 00.	Prem's paid in 10 yrs $2,975.00. Less cash dividends received annually, 1,182 81.	Prem's paid in 10 years $2,160 00. Dividends nothing.
Nett cost of insurance $446 75.	Nett cost of insurance $1,792 16.	Nett cost of ins. $2,160 00.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of admission to the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $10,000,000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of its is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $5,700,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting," and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $59,021,011.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $13,000,000 greater than any other Company.
